As It has been decided to introduce the Separation Scheme into the Hassan District it will be necessary to make three appointments of Special Magistrates with effect from the date of the introduction of the scheme. The question of making selections from among the candidates who have already applied has been already raised in another note and the First Member has called for the file of applications. This will be separately submitted. Meantime it may be decided whether one of the three appointments may be filled up by an Assistant Commissioner. The number of Assistant Commissioners in the Second Grade of Magistrates when the scheme is fully introduced is to be 4 under the draft order on the Civil Service Re-organization scheme. At present, however, there are only three Assistant Commissioners. Perhaps one of the three of new appointments may be filled by an Assistant Commissioner. This is all the more desirable, since on the introduction of the Separation Scheme in the Hassan District the place of District Excise Officer will be abolished and the Assistant Commissioner now filling that appointment will have to be found another place. Of the remaining two places

I have no objection to the appt of one of the Distt Judges as a Special Magistrate provided the number of Distt Judges in the grade of Special Magistrates does not exceed the number allotted to them. The name of the Distt Judge may be proposed. In recommending for the place of the Magistrate, please see the Minto file

Dear Sir,

Your DO. No 3753/CB of 19.6.24 requesting my opinion in regard to certain members of the bar. Mr Devaraj Urs has appeared before me in a number of cases and has impressed me as a capable lawyer. He presents his cases very clearly and does not omit any of the salient points. It seems to me that of the three persons mentioned in your letter, he is the best. Mr Boaz also is good and conducts his cases fairly conducted: even not for behind his devoted sons. Mr. Mallandhy has just joined the profession and has not conducted or argued any case in my court. From enquiries I learn that it will be some time before he comes up to the level of his late father.

Yours Sincerely
R Srinivasan
